Other assignments within the AF-ROTC include: Group Commanders, Cadet Captains Arthur T. Cajacob, Alvin M. Fellman and Par: A. Williams. Group executive Officers are Cadet Captain Eugene M. Freese, and Cadet 1st Lieutenants Rodney K. Buis and Laverne L. Gell.

Bernardine Opens Tonight; Scheduled for Two-Day Run

Suzie—"the dearest piece of animal flesh who ever lived."

Pup Suzi Debuts In 'Bouncy' Play

By Kay Anderson

Tonight the University Theater will present Mary Coyle Chase's "Bernardine," at 8:30 in the Auditorium. The second performance of the play will be tomorrow night.

Suzi Clark, a fluffy Pekinese puppy owned by director Dr. Edwin L. Clark, enters the comedy when Wormy's mother buys the dog in the hope that she will substitute somewhat for Wormy's interest in girls.

Described by Dr. Clark as "the dearest piece of animal flesh who ever lived," Suzi is one year old and coal black with white front paws and vest.

Rehearsed Four Weeks.

The seven-pound pup which appears in both acts has participated in four weeks of cast rehearsals. Dr. Clark reports that she is doing "just marvelously."

Suzi wears a Pendleton coat to all rehearsals and relaxes while awaiting her cue in a wrought iron bed imported from New York. Her interest in the theater stems from a trip to Broadway last summer when she spent hours walking up and down Broadway barking at the Hotel Astor doorman.

Red Lounging Gown

Suzi lounges at home in a ruby-red gown lined with gold satin sporting an ermine collar and a pocket for her mad money.

At first, the cast reacted with "Oh no's" to the idea of a Pekinese in the play, but Suzie soon won them over.

The rest of the cast represents a group of high-schoolers who wistfully dream of a mythical goddess called "Bernardine."

Dr. Clark urges students to return all unused tickets to the box office immediately so other students will not be turned away from the theater.

He describes the play as a "real bouncy show" and the staging as "gone, real gone."

Nevins' Fund

Students will be able to contribute to the Carolyn Nevins Memorial Fund next week. Donations will be taken in the University box office every morning from 9 a. m. to noon.

The Memorial fund will be used to purchase books in the field of social sciences for the Gene Eppley Library. This action was taken after the last Prexy Party.

Chairman of the Carolyn Nevins Memorial Fund is Jay B. MacGregor, dean of student personnel. Miss Ellen Lord, head librarian, will head the committee for the selection of books.

Editor Miller Gets Journalism Grant

Marcia Miller is the first recipient of a $100 scholarship which will be awarded annually by the Associated Nebraska Industrial Editors.

Miss Miller is editor-in-chief of the GATEWAY.

The Board of Regents accepted the scholarship at their January meeting. The grant is given to a superior senior student who is majoring in journalism and has a grade average of 2.5 or above.

The Regents also ratified the appointments of Paul Borge and Bill McBride as instructors of speech. They will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Ferion Halvorson.

Committee Proposes Senior Day Activities

Plans for Senior Day activities and the dinner dance May 18 were discussed at the Senior Committee meeting yesterday.

Theme ideas and gift suggestions will be presented for vote at the next Senior meeting, announced Senior class president Chuck French. Menu selections will also be chosen.

McFayden Heads Alumni Fund Drive

Alumni will be working to top last year's Fund Drive total when they kickoff the 1956 Drive Febr. 13. Last year the Drive netted $8,610.

Richard J. McFayden will lead the alumni in this fourth annual drive as National Chairman.

There are 30 teams and 150 Fund agents ready to solicit the Omaha-Council Bluffs area. Alumni outside of Omaha will be contacted by mail.

Three Fund categories have been approved by the Alumni Board of Directors: the Building Fund, the Scholarship Fund and the Subsistence Fund.

New this year is the Initial and Special Gifts Division, headed by Joe Baker, 1948 graduate.

The personal solicitation phase of the campaign ends March 2. However, the 1956 Fund Drive does not officially close until Aug. 31.

As in the past, contributions received after the closing date will be credited to next year's Fund Drive.

"The growth of the Alumni Fund since 1953 is a credit to all alumni. I'm sure that much of this record is due to the fine help of many Fund workers and to the growing acceptance of this opportunity for all of us to serve our alma mater," commented Chairman McFayden.

World-Herald Renews Business Scholarships

Renewals of three scholarships have been announced by the Omaha World-Herald.

Valued at $100 each, the scholarships have been awarded to Richard Acamo, William Donnelly and Paul Alpersen. All three are working for the degree Bachelor of Science in Retailing.

The scholarships are awarded by the World-Herald bi-annually on the basis of scholastic ability.

Eppley Formally Presents Keys To Officials at Library Dedication

Omaha University officially became the recipient of the Gene Eppley Library last Sunday afternoon.

Formal dedication was at 2:30 p. m. President Milo Bail, following an invocation by Reverend B. F. Schwartz of the Hanscom Park Methodist Church, introduced Mr. Eppley, who presented the keys to the building.

"There is no better planned or equipped library in this country. The library is the storehouse of knowledge of the University," said Clarence Kirkland, president of the Board of Regents.

"Had there been no donation," Mr. Kirkland continued, "the university would have been without funds upon completion of the new building. We allocate $100,000 yearly for the building fund, and it would have taken us over eight years to pay for the building. Due to the donation, Omaha University begins with a building fund of $800,000, which can be used for buildings in the future. We pledge to use this fine building in an intelligent and instructive manner."

Formal acceptance of the building by representatives of the faculty, Regents, Alumni Associates and student body followed Mr. Kirkland's address.

Lewis Radcliffe, president of the Student Council, stated: "Mr. Eppley's gift is more than a physical building; it is a display of the faith of what the university shall accomplish in the future."

At the end of the ceremonies a portrait of Mr. Eppley was unveiled in the central hall. A brief benediction by Reverend Schwartz followed and at 3:45 a reception was held. Tours of the building was conducted by library staff members until 5:30 p. m.

Omar Plans New Training Program

Omar, Inc., will unveil its new summer training program for Omaha University male students at 3 p. m. next Wednesday in the Adult Education Conference Auditorium.

The training will cover four successive three-month periods. Six trainees will be accepted from the Omaha area.

The first summer will be spent on plant jobs 40 hours a week. The second summer will be on route sales work.

Third summer trainees will perform jobs selected on the basis of preference, aptitude and training. The fourth summer will fill in training gaps.

From the trainees Omar will select future executives. Information on the plan is available in the Placement Office, Room 274.

February is a month of holidays. Abraham Lincoln's birthday is Feb. 12, St. Valentine's Day falls on Feb. 14 and George Washington's birthday is Feb. 22.

Campus Comments

To the P. E. Department:

Since entering the University of Omaha I have been waiting expectantly for some action to take place in the Fieldhouse. As I look at it, perhaps in vain, I feel that more and better facilities should exist.

First of all, what facilities are available for a good individual workout? The wrestling mat is now available, thanks to the drive of two Physical Education majors, Frank Mancuso and Milt Hearn, a basketball court, one only, and a golf range. If your interests do not lie in these three, what else is there to do, roll in the dirt?

I leave it to your imagination, sirs, let's do something! I firmly believe that a $750,000 building should offer more for the individual interests.

J. Paul Sheedy* Had A Hangdog Look Till Wildroot Cream-Oil Gave Him Confidence

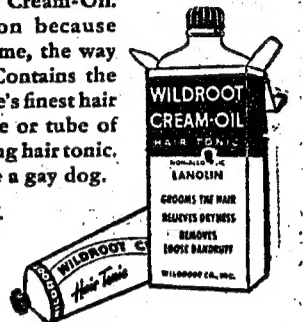

Poor old mangy Sheedy was hounded by a lack of confidence! Every girl he talked to told him he was barking up the wrong tree. "Fido don't get a date pretty soon," he howled, "I'm gonna flea the campus and go home to mutter." Then he got wise to Wildroot Cream-Oil. Now he has confidence in any situation because he nose his hair looks healthy and handsome, the way Nature intended . . . neat but not greasy. They tell me that if all the OU men who sleep in class were placed end to end they'd be more comfortable! Sure 'nuf! It's relaxing time again—or is it instead "Begin Anew" time for most of the campus??

After this one week of diligent studying and general turning over of new leaves, we notice the campus is getting back to its usual state of being—a casualness typical of institutions of higher learning. It is even penetrating into the night school (quite an achievement) where everyone is finally discovering the other phases of college life!

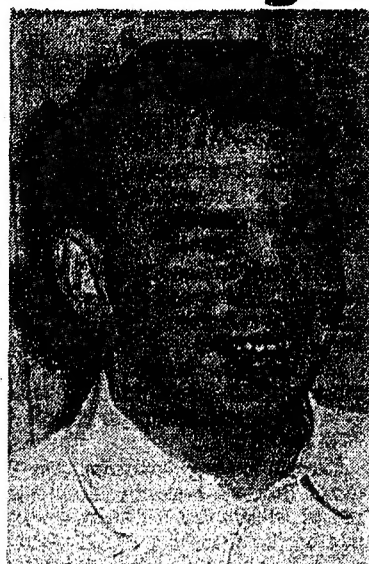

This has also proved to be a week of anticipation around OU: the only tangible remains of last semester's courses (those nasty little symbols which every prof can be quoted as being in favor of abolishing) have yet to make their official appearance—however, the more curious among us dolled out the inflated penny postcards earlier to speed up the process.

We also anticipate with pleasure the forthcoming dramatic production of the University Players—from all advance tips it appears to be one not to be missed!

And then again, when we have nothing else to worry about we can always wonder if the Book Store will ever sell our consigned books!

Winner and still champion pancake eater is Houghtie Reed. He matched and then bettered his previous record of 33, and consumed 44 "cakes" at the annual Lambda Chi Pancake Supper.

The Brandeis Junior Colony is doing a little anticipating, too! In hopes of an early spring (paying no attention to Mr. Groundhog) a vast array of new linen separates are appearing in the junior department. The famous British Walker skirt is now available in crisp linen, (navy, cocoa, and sky blue), and to accompany it are brisk new sleeveless blouses which match the double kick-pleated skirts. Tailored and trim! At Brandeis—3rd floor.

Robin Nordell Reigns As King Satan VIII

King Satan . . . Robin Nordell.

Robin Nordell, junior Business Administration major, was crowned King Satan VIII during the intermission of Alpha Xi Delta's annual Devil Dance during final exam week.

Nordell, a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, was elected by an all-Greek vote. He was attired in the traditional long red suit and black cape and carried a pitchfork.

Other candidates for the title were Ron Adwers, Theta Chi; Chuck French, Pi Kappa Alpha; Jim Gathmann, Phi Beta Chi and Bob Storms, Lambda Chi Alpha.

Skeets Mahoney played for the dance at the Carter Lake Club.

Students To Elect Junior Prom Queen

An all-school election for Junior Prom Queen will be held Wednesday from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., in the Student Lounge.

Candidates for the title are Marilyn Jones, Zeta Tau Alpha; Margery Radek, Sigma Kappa; Judy Samuelson, Alpha Xi Delta and Pat Vogel, Chi Omega. The winner will be presented during the intermission of the dance.

Committee chairman for the Prom is Simon A. Simon. Serving on the committee are Irene Rorick, Dean Thompson and Al Thomsen.

Eddy Haddad's Orchestra will play at the Prom next Friday at the Carter Lake Club. Admission to the semi-formal dance is two activity cards per couple.

Juniors will also vote for a Student Council representative to replace Jean Harrington McKee.

Candidates are Annette Dubler, Sigma Kappa; Marde Martin, Chi Omega and Lois Proffit, Alpha Xi Delta.

Officers Elected By Lambda Chi's

Lambda Chi Alpha has announced the election of Ronald Jenkins as president for the 1956-57 term. Joe Michalik and Don Fjellin are the new vice-president and secretary respectively. Carl Nelson will assume the treasurer's duties and Allan Warrior is the social chairman.

Others elected are Rick Cavanaugh, chairman; Dean Mill, ritualist; Louie Drexel, pledge master and Jerry Fricke, corresponding secretary.

Dr. Robert Harper, faculty sponsor, installed the new officers at ceremonies held at Benson Baptist Church on Sunday.

The installation dinner at Trentinos followed the ceremonies. Honored guests at the dinner were Dr. Harper, Dr. Duane Hill, Capt John W. Plantikow, Dr. J. D. Tyson and Major Leroy Wenstrom.

Tough Kansas Fives Last Fieldhouse Foes

By Warren Franke

A pair of tough opponents close home court activity for the 1955-56 edition of the Omaha University basketball squad.

Kansas State Teachers from Pittsburg, Kans., are Fieldhouse guests tomorrow night. Halftime presentation of the annual trophy for the season's outstanding cager will be made by the Warriors, OU men's pep group.

The home finale comes on Monday with a visit from Emporia State Teachers, holders of a 79-62 win over the Indians this year.

Gorillas Swing From Win String

Pittsburg's Gorillas were proudly clinging to a 15 game win streak at last word received from the Kansas school. Coach John Lance is fifth winning tutor in the history of collegiate basketball.

Four returning starters and an opening lineup that betters 6-3 in height speak for the power of this squad. Bruce Palmer, a 6-2 all-conference guard, is the top scorer in the balanced quintet.

Top Scorer on Hornet Squad

The Hornets from Emporia were too tough for OU on the road, but Jack Cotton's kids may stop the Teachers if they can, hold Buck Quincy. The 6-2 Quincy slapped in 27 points in the first outing, 17 above his average.

But the Indians must also halt little Jack Miller. He is averaging 19 tallies per contest to lead Central Conference scoring.

Wrestling Tourney Closes Semester

The University Intramural Department crowned eight wrestling champions Jan. 28 after the basketball game with Rockhurst to close their first semester activities.

Jerry Davis pinned Jerry Hunter to win the 121 pound division. In the 128 pound division, Don Andrews decisioned Don Digillo 2-1. Don Hager won a 4-1 decision from John Maddox to win the 135 division title.

Merina Domigueq a graduate of Boys Town won the 145 pound crown. Herschel Nuzum, Don Benning, Marv Nevins and Ed Baker won the 155, 165, 175 and heavy crown respectively.

Of the original 45 entered in the tourney 18 dropped out because of the stiff competition.

Tribe Protects Summit In Intramural Bowling

A new year, a new semester, but not a new leader.

That's the current picture in the men's Intramural Bowling League following 12 weeks of play.

The Pawnees have compiled a six game lead in the Sweepstakes division. Their margin looks safe, for they are gaining momentum by consistently rolling winning series.

Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Kappa Alpha are tied for the Interfraternity division top spot with nine wins each. The Frat race stays close with all teams still in the running.

During registration week things were pretty hectic, and excuses for program changes were varied. One reason given for dropping Ethics class: "It might change my view of life; I want to continue my life of sin."

Indians Snag Third in Quad

Coach Ernie Gorr's Indians opened the indoor track season by placing third in a quadrangular meet at Kansas State Tuesday.

A twelve man squad made the trip to Manhattan.

K-State took an early lead and went on to win the meet by racking up 79½ points. Emporia State was second with 34, followed by Omaha with 16½ points. Drake finished last, managing only 1 point.

Bob Barnes won the 440-event in 51.2 seconds. His brother, Bill, placed third in the high hurdles and second in the photo-finish 75-yard intermediates.

Sophomore Merrill Gee took third in the 75-yard dash.

Coach Gorr announced upon his return that entries are due Feb. 21 for the Intramural Indoor Track Meet which is scheduled for February 22 and 23.

Sure Signs of Spring

OU golf coach Dick Knight asks all men interested in the links sport on an intercollegiate basis to report to a meeting at the Field House on Monday, February 13, at 1:00.

Men interested in baseball will meet there with Virgil Yelkin at 2:00.

Sioux City Squad Fells Cotton's Men

Omaha University's cagers fell before a stubborn Morningside quintet 83-81 last Monday at Sioux City.

OU took an early lead, but the home team was determined to end their losing streak. They forged ahead 43-40 at half-time.

The Indians season record now stands at 6 wins and 11 losses. OU set back Simpson 73-58 on Jan. 19.

The following Saturday the Indians flubbed a chance for an upset of Washburn Icabods. Erratic passing by Omaha gave Washburn a 74-67 victory in the Fieldhouse.

Rockhurst came to town Jan. 28 and went home with one more victory in their win column. Rockhurst held a commanding 38-26 halftime lead and staved off the Indians the last half to win 61-51.

The Indians traveled to Crete and were hit 89-82 by Doane. Howard Baker poured in 27 points for the losers. OU downed St. Ambrose 65-63 in the Fieldhouse to open second semester play.
